By His Excellency's Command,

William-Henry Lyttelton.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

PHILADELPHIA, April 15.

IN our last we meationed, that a third party of our men, that were out in search of the Indians, who carried off the prisoners from M'Cords fort, had not returned; since which we have received advice, that they came up with the enemy at Sideling Hill, with whom they had a smart engagement, and wou'd have beat them, if another large party of Indians (said to be commanded by Shingas) had not come up to their assistance. The battle, we hear, lasted above 2 hours, in which time most of our people fired 24 rounds, and proved themselves to be men both of courage and conduct; but being greatly overpowered in numbers, and having lost a great many of their party, they were obliged to give way. Twenty-five, it is said, out of 50 are returned, some of whom mortally wounded. What number the Indians lost is uncertain, but thought to be at least as large as ours; and there is reason to believe that Capt. Jacobs is among the dead.

We hear from Winchester, that on the first instant, Capt. Ashby's fort, on Patison's creek, was attacked by 100 Indians, who decoyed a party out, and killed 6, shot the captain's 2 horses, and carried off 2 boys of Michael Teabolt's.—Col. Washington arrived at Winchester the 6th instant.

April 22d. In our last we gave a short account of an engagement between some of our men and the Indians on our frontiers, since which we have the following account in a letter from Shippensburg, dated April 12, The morning after McCords fort was taken, 31 of our people went in pursuit of the enemy, under the command of Capt. Culbertson, who was joined at fort Littleton by ensign Jemison, with 19 men, making in all 50 men. On saturday evening they came in sight of the enemy's fire, and about break of day on sunday morning they attacked the enemy at their fire, who immediately fled. Some of the captives then made their escape, and Mary McCord was shot by the fire of our men. Our people then came up and loosed the captives, and retired to the top of a hill, where the enemy returned and attacked them. Our men fought bravely for near 2 hours, but the enemy being reinforced by a fresh party, they surrounded our people and killed many, so that they found it necessary to break thro' and make their escape, in doing which we lost several men. The enemy then recovered some of their prisoners again, but 5 made their escape and got to fort Littleton. By the best account we can get we killed 15 of the enemy, among which they are confident Capt. Jacobs is one. Capt. Culbertson was killed, with 18 others, and 13 wounded, one of which is since dead.

Extract of a Letter from Oswego, dated April 15, 1756.

"—After our loss at Oneida Carrying Place, I am sure it will be agreeable to you to hear of our safety here:—We have been in a manner surrounded by scouting parties, who have carried off 4 of our men, and scalped another very nigh fort Ontario:—By the rafts they make for crossing this river, and the frequent reports of their fire arms, I judge they come all from the Eastward, and consist mostly of the Cachnawaga and Oswegatchie Indians: The few of ours who were here have left us in great panic; I am not sorry for it, as they endeavoured to infect us with their fears:—The accident at the Carrying Place has roused a spirit of vigilance in us beyond my hopes, or what I thought our strength could support; for we have been extremely sickly, and lost great numbers by the scurvy."—

Extract of a Letter from New-York, dated April 26.

"This moment an account is come to town from Albany,

Albany, that a party of 15 of our men coming from fort Edward, were attacked by a party of Indians, who lay in ambush; eleven out of the 15 are miſſing."

Boſton, April 26. On wedneſday laſt his excellency the governor was pleaſed to diſſolve the great and general court or aſſembly of this province. And Precepts are iſſuing for the calling a new aſſembly, to be convened at the court houſe in Boſton, on wedneſday the 26th of May next.

Extract of a Letter from Annapolis Royal, dated March 21.

"There has not one Indian been ſeen ſince the inhabitants left this.—Undoubtedly you have heard of McNeale's fate, who was taken by 20 canows when all faſt aſleep; but their gentry at St. John's will perhaps very ſuddenly pay dear for their tricks: A French deſerter ſays, that the people of St. John's ſent for proviſions to Canada, but only brought back a little flour, being in want themſelves, and greatly ſo at Louiſbourgh: Pray God increaſe their troubles for their unjuſt and vile proceedings."

New-York, May 3 Wedneſday laſt came to town from Boſton, his excellency general Shirley. He was accompanied by a number of gentlemen, who went to meet him upon the road, and ſaluted by fort George, when he came to his lodgings in Beaver ſtreet

They write from Halifax, That commodore Spry had ordered all the ſhips under his command in that harbour to be ready, as he intended to put to ſea the firſt of May, and to cruize off Louiſbourg.

CHARLES-TOWN, June 17.

On Friday laſt arrived here Capt. Rath, in 17 Days Paſſage from Barbados, who acquaints us, that the French have refitted His Majeſty's Ship Warwick at Martinico, and ſent her out, together with a 10 Gun Ship and the two Frigates that were at the taking of the Warwick, to cruize to Windward of Barbados: That they had ſent 6 Engliſh Merchant Ships into Martinico, two of which were Guineymen: And, that a Squadron of Men of War was daily expected from England, to curb the Inſolence of the Meſſieurs.

Laſt Sunday Morning, between 1 and 2 o'Clock, a Fire (which is ſuppoſed by many to have been maliciouſly kindled by ſome helliſh Incendiary) broke out amongſt a Parcel of Pitch that lay upon Colonel Beale's Wharf, and burnt with ſuch Violence, that, although all the Town Engines were there in a ſhort Time and played with great Judgment, and upwards of 100 Men from the Windſor and Jamaica aſſiſted, who were very active and ſerviceable, it conſumed all the Stores on the ſaid Wharf, with what was in them, before its Progreſs could be ſtopped. His Excellency the Governor, tho' remote from it, was among the firſt at the Spot, upon the Alarm of Fire, and having immediately given ſuch Directions as were neceſſary upon this Occaſion and on Account of the Number of Acadians here, ſtaid 'till the Fire was totally extinguiſhed. —— Providentially it was calm; for, had the Wind blown from the Weſtward (it being Low-Water) none of the Veſſels lying at that and ſome other adjacent Wharves, nor a great Number of Stores full of valuable Merchandize, could have been ſaved; or had it been Eaſterly, all the trading Part of the Town might have been deſtroyed, or at leaſt muſt have ſuffered very conſiderably —In the Stores that have been conſumed were, about 160 Barrels of Rice, 7 Hogſheads of Sugar, 5 of Rum, 1 Caſk of Indico, 40 Coils of Cordage, ſome Flour, and many other Articles; and the Quantity of Pitch burnt, was about 50 Barrels.

Yeſterday arrived here Capt Eimes, in a Paſſage of 56 Days from Briſtol, by whom we learn, viz. That Admiral Byng had ſail'd for the Mediterranean: That Lord Loudon, with the Troops deſtined for North-America, were at Plymouth: And, that it was publiſhed in the London Papers, that the Admirals Hawke and Moſtyn, who were cruizing in the Bay of Biſcay, had taken two French Tranſport-Ships from Breſt for Canada, with 1000 Men in each, and had ſunk a third.

Juſt arrived, a Sloop in 20 Days from St. Kitt's, by which we learn, that on the 28th of May came in there (the Ship Gateway,) Capt Smith, from London, which he left about the 22d of April, and ſaid, that in coming out, about 60 Leagues to the Weſtward, he met with one of His Majeſty's 20 Gun Ships, commanded by Capt. Gilbraith, the Lieutenant of which came on board, and told him, that the Admirals Hawke and Moſtyn, had fallen in with the Breſt Fleet (conſiſting of 11 Sail) in two Diviſions, off Cape Finiſterre, and taken 3 of them.—The ſame Sloop, in her Paſſage touch'd at St Euſtatia, where was a Snow juſt arrived in 34 Days from Plymouth, the Maſter of which ſaid, that he had heard of Admirals Hawke and Moſtyn's having taken 3 French Men of War, off Cape Finiſterre, and driven 3 more aſhore; and that, as he came out of Plymouth, he met with two very large French Ships going in, which he judged to be either Tranſports or Men of War. They had a like Account from Antigua, at St. Euſtatia.—— By the ſame Sloop, we hear of no more than 3 Engliſh Merchantmen being carried into Martinico, one a Schooner belonging to Rhode Iſland from the Coaſt of Guiney, the 2d a Brigt. from Virginia, and the 3d as yet unknown.

Extract of a Letter from New York, May 20.

"——— At preſent we know nothing of what paſſes either at Oſwego or Lake George; but the greateſt Part of our Provincials are gone to Albany, where thoſe of Connecticut are alſo daily arriving. At this very Albany 'tis ſuppoſed Major-General Shirley will wait the Arrival of Lord Loudon!—We hear, that in Conſequence of certain Stipulations between the King and the Proprietary of Pennſylvania, His Majeſty has nominated Major General Webb to be Governor of that Colony; and that Robert Hunter Morris, Eſq; will be appointed Lieutenant-Governor of New Jerſey. ——"
